

Get your free Library Card

Requirements

Name and address with photo (no other ID required)

- Driver's license
- Ontario health card (version with address on the back)
- Ontario Photo ID Card (ages 16 and up)

If you don't have any of the above, you must present one piece of ID from each of the categories. Expired documents or self-written name and address are not acceptable. Bills, leases, and legal documents must have been issued within the last two months of the date of registration or renewal.

Name identification

- birth certificate
- citizenship card
- current bill or invoice
- current lease
- current legal document (subpoena, parole, or bail)
- employee ID or benefit card
- hospital card
- landed immigration certificate
- Ontario health card
- major credit card
- passport
- social insurance card
- student card

Address identification

- current* bill or invoice
- current* government cheque
- current* lease
- current* legal document
- *issued within the last two months of the date of registration or renewal
- Toronto Public Library mailed registration postcard (talk to library staff about having a postcard mailed to you)

Your library card lets you borrow books, music, DVDs and more. It gives you access to downloadable material such as books, magazines, music and movies.

You can use your card to access databases to view magazines, newspapers and journals that you won't find other places.

If you need access to a computer, you can reserve a computer at any library to get online.

Once you have a library card, you can use it to access your account online. While in your account, you can:

- see what items you have checked out
- see what items you have on hold
- renew items
- place, suspend or cancel holds
- check to see if you have any fines

For more information, please go to <http://www.torontopubliclibrary.ca/>